A Report Description

"This report studies the Gasoline Direct Injection (GDI) System market, gasoline direct injection (GDI), also known as petrol direct injection, direct petrol injection, spark-ignited direct injection (SIDI) and fuel-stratified injection (FSI), is a variant of fuel injection employed in modern two-stroke and four-stroke gasoline engines. The gasoline is highly pressurized, and injected via a common rail fuel line directly into the combustion chamber of each cylinder, as opposed to conventional multipoint fuel injection that injects fuel into the intake tract or cylinder port. Directly injecting fuel into the combustion chamber requires high-pressure injection, whereas low pressure is used injecting into the intake tract or cylinder port.

Gasoline Direct Injection (GDI) is a new technology that follows Port Fuel Injection (PFI). Instead of injecting the fuel on the back side of each intake valve for each cylinder GDI sprays directly into each cylinder."
